PUBLIC LEDGER.

Office, 13 Madison Street.

LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

THE CITY.

MEMPHIS:

Monday Evening, Feb. 25, 1878.

LEDGER LINES.

The weather to-day has been glorious.

Yesterday was fair and full of golden sunshine.

Judge Morgan opened Chancery Court this morning.

Motions were heard today in the United States Court.

The Ulks give a grand pageant Monday night, March 4th.

There was a delightful ball last night at Maennerchor Hall.

Glass and queensware at reduced prices at C. N. Erich's.

Lawrence Barrett to-night appears as "Hamlet" at the Memphis Theater.

Maple syrup, drip syrup, creamery butter—all fine—at Oliver, Finnie & Co.'s.

The voice of the guinea is no longer silent, but is heard in the suburban yard.

Owing to the warm weather the trees are budding and the grass begins to look green.

People from every State in the Union will come to the Memphis Mardi-Gras the 4th and 5th of next month.

The counterfeiting cases of Cal Bin-son and Robinson are set for trial today in the United States Court.

The Court Square squirrels yesterday basked in the golden sunlight and gamboled over the new spring grass.

Wm. Wells, a colored drayman, was arrested this morning for careless driving, at the instance of Kirk Allen.

The Bluff City Grays, with the music of a snare drum, marched by Calvary church yesterday during services in that building.

A large number of Mardi-Gras visitors have reached the city. The attendance of people from abroad will be over fifty thousand.

Judge Trigg has issued an order of attachment against S. Green, magistrate, for not obeying an order of the United States Court.

Hotels, boarding houses, restaurants and railroads are making great preparations for the accommodation of Mardi-Gras visitors.

The amateur baseball is inaugurating the game. Already the curve, the twist and the lacer can be seen illustrated by the small boy.

House and boarding-house keepers will do well to call on C. N. Erich before buying as he offers great bargains in glass, queensware, cutlery, cutlery, etc.

Mr. Louis Aehle, a clever and popular young man who clerks for V. D. Fuchs, on Jefferson street, and was married a year ago, is very proud to-day. It is a boy.

Albert Bush, alias King, arrested on the charge of stealing $14 from Mrs.
Orville Yerger, at the Poplar street market, has been sent to jail to answer an indictment.

The grand stand at Court Square is nearing completion. The stand is a great convenience to the public, especially to strangers, as it is the rendezvous of Mardi-Gras ceremonies.

The jury in the case of Eddens, charged with tampering with the ballot-box at Bartlett during the Presidential election, in 1876, cannot agree, two being for acquittal and ten for acquittal.

Horace Hillman, alias Robert Lewis, colored, charged with stealing a mule from James Henley, near Salsbury, of which mention was made in the Ledger, has been arrested by the police.

In the Criminal Court this morning John Davis was convicted of larceny and sentenced to one year's imprisonment.
Bettie Swanson, colored, was convicted of assault and battery.

John F. Crow, arrested near New-burne, Dyer county, on an indictment for illicit distilling, was committed to jail this morning in default of $1050 bail to answer the United States Court.

The police have received orders to arrest and imprison all suspicious persons and violent gamblers, in order to protect strangers from being swindled during Mardi-Gras. Give the boys a chance.

A number of ladies will wear one thousand dollar dresses at the Memphis and Ulks balls. Think of a waltz with a one thousand dollar dress! Both balls will be grand and magnificent in every respect.

The clerk's report in the admiralty cases of the steamers Cheek, White and Illinois was argued to-day in the United States Court. This is an unusually interesting case, as it involves a variety of novel questions.

Saturday afternoon the police arrested the following sporting characters: Bob Brown, Caswell Wilson, Charles Jones, James Marshall, James Monroe, Jake

Lory, Wm. Duon, Frank Flynn and George Evans.

At a late hour Sunday night a gentleman was startled by the screams of a woman on Union street, near Third. He saw that a man was endeavoring to make the woman go with him, but the latter fled in an opposite direction.

It is generally rumored that Sir Lou Leubrie is Count de Noses, Barren of Cash and Chief Cook to the King. His titles are only equalled by his wit, his modesty and his intellect, which are proverbial in all enterprises looking to the public interests of our city.

The choicest oysters received this warm season come by express and are fresh and reliable when received. The price charged may be a few cents more than for old oysters, brought through on slow freight trains, but there is all the difference in quality and taste.

Bobbie Ingersoll is surely coming.
Persons anxious to gain information as to the subject matter of Ingersoll's lectures should read "The Devil's Palpit," a strange book by an Englishman named Taylor, whose utterances are insignificant, though amusing, when compared with Butler's logical work Horn Pauline.

Ex-Justice Millard, the man who admits that he performed the mock-marriage between Peter Ford and Miss Bain, has given $500 bail for his appearance before the Criminal Court. Ford's daughter is distracted with grief because of her father's shame, and insists that he did not countenance nor was he aware of the fraud perpetrated by Millard.

Saturday a domesticated coon was found in the county jail, but the manner in which the quadruped gained admittance has not been ascertained. The coon evidently has been the pet of some family, and doubtless crawled through the sewer pipe into the jail basement, being attracted there by hunter. The coon will be adopted as a pet in the jail.

The local railroads have issued over seventy thousand Mardi-Gras circulars, and have information that the number of excursionists will be larger than at any previous time. Several hotels have already engaged all of their present rooms and are preparing temporary accommodation for the large number of persons expected. There is no doubt but what the city will be crowded to its utmost capacity by Mardi-Gras visitors.

Choice Red Snappers,
Savannah River Shad, Reelfoot Lake Perch,
Victor D. Fuchs, 39 and 41 Jefferson street.

To an already well established reputation, are constantly added the warmest praises of travelers who have enjoyed the hospitalities of the Grand Central Hotel, New York.

Amazon Bitters, the great preventive of chills and fever.

Mr. N. Fontaine left Sunday for New Orleans.

Mr. George Winston, of Fris's Point, Miss., is in the city.

Mrs. Horton, of Nashville, is a guest of Dr. N. C. Perkins' family, on Vance street.

Mr. Dick Moore, coroner, and a prominent citizen of Louisville, is stopping in the city.

Mrs. Mattie Castleman and son, Willie Castleman, are guests of Mr. J. O. Cox's family, on Adams street.

Colonel Ed Munford, after a residence of several years at McMinnville, has returned to the city and will make Memphis his home.

Messrs. Isaac Block, Raphael Block, J. Applewhite, and C. H. Hard, prominent merchants of Wittsburg, Arkansas, are in the city.

Among the Cincinnati excursionists on the steamer Baum to the Memphis Mardi-Gras will be Mrs. Harmon, Mrs.
Bill, Misses Larson, Hill and Dye.

Mr. John Lane, who is pleasantly remembered as a member of the Memphis Theater stock company in 1873, is in the city with the Lawrence Barrett troupe.

Misses Maggie Calhoun, of Staunton, and George Adams, of Pulaski, the latter a niece of General John Adams, are guests of Mr. George D. Crockett's family, at No. 409 Court street.

Commodore James R. Wise, wife and daughter Miss Ida Wise, Captain Robert W. Wise, Captain James D. Parker, John Raibe, Captain John Gould, of Cincinnati, will be among the Mardi-Gras visitors.

Colonel A. O. Russell, of Russell, Morgan & Co., the great Cincinnati printing firm, is in the city. Colonel Russell, who is known in the fraternity as "Pie," formerly lived in Memphis and was foreman of the Bulletin from 1857 to 1859.

Captain H. T. McLarty, of Helena, Ark., who has been in the city a few days attending to some business matters, received a dispatch from Helena informing him that his sterna was burned on Friday night last, resulting in a total loss. Particulars not yet known. He was partly insured.

Mr. John L. Hennin, brother of James G. Hennin, of this city, died after a short illness Saturday evening, near Forrest City, Arkansas. The deceased was a young man of excellent character, respected and beloved because of his many virtues and rectitude of life. His remains reached the city last night and were interred in Elmwood to-day. To the distressed mother we tender our heartfelt sympathies in her sorrow for the death of a devoted son and worthy gentleman.

SPRING STYLES.
Martin Cohen, the hatter, has received 10 cases of spring style hats, perfect beauties.
Come and see them. No. 219 Main street.

In the Ledger job office can be found competent, skillful and tasteful printers, who can give entire satisfaction in the display of any job of printing.

A CONTESTED WILL.

Two Brothers are in Dispute as to an Inheritance—Grave Allegations and a Curious Will.

The following bill, styled C. C. Har-bert vs. C. W. Harbert, administrator, was filed to-day by Messrs. Gantt, Patterson & Lowe, attorneys:

To the Hon. J. M. R. R. Judge of the Probate Court of Shelby County:

Your petitioner, Daniel C. Harbert, represents unto your honor that at the July term of your honor's court, 1877, a certain paper writing claimed to be the last will and testament of John Harbert, deceased, was admitted to probate at the instance of one Calvin W. Harbert, a son of the deceased. Petitioner further represents that he is a son of the said John Harbert, deceased. Petitioner alleges that said paper writing admitted to probate as aforesaid is not the last will and testament of the said John Harbert, deceased, for the following reasons:

First—That it was never executed by the said John Harbert as and for his last will and testament.

Second—That the said John Harbert was unduly influenced to execute said paper writing, and it is therefore not his last will and testament. Petitioner therefore prays that the said Calvin W. Har-bert be summoned to appear before your honor's court and answer this petition; and that said probate be set aside and the said pretended will transferred for reprobate to the Circuit Court of Shelby county, where your petitioner may contest its validity in an issue of devisavit vel non.

The above bill was filed by the brother of Calvin W. Harbert, who makes oath "that the facts" are true, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, and that owing to his poverty he is unable to bear the expenses of the action.
By the provisions of the will the petitioner was left out of any inheritance, Calvin W. Harbert being the beneficiary and heir to the property.

class by all visitors.

G. U. O. O. F.
The Grand United Order of Odd Fellows will give a public installation of officers and begin a festival in the southwest corner of the Greenlaw Opera House to-morrow evening and continue the entertainment through the succeeding day and night, Memphis Star Lodge No. 1501, Tennessee Union Lodge No.
1823, Key of the West Lodge No. 1692, Pilgrim's Rest Lodge No. 1717, Yorkshire Lodge No. 1812, Pilgrim's Rest Lodge No. 1829, and Grand Masters' Council No. 28 will participate in the exercises. The officers of Pilgrim's Rest Lodge No. 1829 will be installed to-morrow evening, and those of Yorkshire Lodge No. 1812 Wednesday night.
Every effort will be made by the committee to render this the most pleasant entertainment yet given the colored people of Memphis, and it is hoped that the friends of the G. U. O. O. F. will extend a liberal patronage. The committee has secured two large halls, one of which will be used for dancing and the other for promenading. E. B. Bell, of Key of the West Lodge No. 1692, is master of ceremonies. The committee of arrangements is as follows: Memphis Star Lodge No. 1501—C. A. Johnson, Robert E. Lee, Geo. W. Towson, Tennessee Union Lodge No. 1823—J. H. Hill, L. B. Watkins and C.
W. Miller. Key of the West Lodge No.
1692—E. B. Bell, C. M. Harris and W. H.
Carver. Pilgrim's Rest Lodge No. 1717 —F. T. Case, A. Netherland and William Hill. Yorkshire Lodge No. 1812—J.
Maddox, S. Southall and E. P. Hall. Pilgrim's Rest Lodge No. 1829—T. Plummer, A. McFall and J. Davis. P. G. M.
Council No. 28—R. H. McCain, A. W.
Williams and S. D. Williams.

Te Deum for the New Pope.
Last night at St. Peter's church, Adams street, corner of Third, there was an unusually interesting service, the Te Deum Laudamus being chanted for the new pope, Pius IX.

The officiating priest, Rev. Father Boole, preceded by eight of the Christian Brothers, entered the sanctuary, and immediately after the usual vesper service the Regina Cœli was sung in an artistic manner by Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, nee Miss Jennie Magnevay, to whom the piece was dedicated by Professor C. W. Ritter. The Te Deum Laudamus upon the electromagistral was chanted by the Christian Brothers and the reverend fathers, and was responded to by a full choir, the rendition being creditable to the character of the grand music for which St. Peter's is noted. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Eockle, Rev.
Father McCarvey being also on the altar. After the Te Deum Laudamus the benediction was pronounced and the congregation retired.

Amusements.

LAWRENCE BARRETT.—To-night this eminent actor will begin an engagement at the Memphis Theater, the opening play being Hamlet. Mr. Barrett is justly considered as one of the greatest actors in the world. He is deservedly popular in Memphis, and will draw full houses.
Persons who expect to attend the Memphis Theater during Mr. Barrett's engagement should at once secure seats.

ELICHOHN'S ORCHESTRA.—The grand concert to be given by Ellichorn's Orchestra, under the auspices of the German Casino, at Cochran Hall, Sunday evening, March 3, promises to be an unusually excellent entertainment. This orchestra is composed of genuine artists whose talent and experience have never failed to please and satisfy the most critical audiences. We bespeak a very large attendance at this entertainment.

ST. PATRICK'S FESTIVAL.—One of the most attractive and delightful festivals and reunions ever given in Memphis is that announced to be inaugurated Wednesday night at the Memphis Club Hall for the benefit of St. Patrick's Church. Music, dancing, feasting, and social intercourse are among the features of the programme arranged for this festival, which will continue until Leat. The hall will be crowded every night.

THE GRAND BALL AND SUPPER for the benefit of the Catholic church in course of erection will take place to-morrow (Tuesday) night at the Maennerchor Hall. Tickets, including supper, one dollar each. Ladies free.

Amazon Bitters, the great appetizer, invigorator and recuperant.

The type, material and workmen of the Ledger job office are as good as the best, and hence we guarantee first-class work and full satisfaction to our patrons.

Fresh Oysters Received Daily.
V. D. Fuchs, 39, 41 Jefferson st.

Police Court.
Recorder Quigley disposed of the following business this morning: P. S. Mall and C. Muck, drunk, discharged; Adolph Raarman, receiving stolen goods, case continued; J. Haiser, larceny, case continued; Robert Brown, Creswell Wilson, James Marshall, James Monroe, William Duon, Jake Levy, Frank Flynn and George Evans were arrested on the charge of "misdemeanor." Brown, Wilson, Monroe and Evans were each fined $25 and required to give bail in the sum of $250 for their appearance at the Criminal Court. The case of the others was continued until this afternoon. Laura Graham, disorderly, discharged; F. B. Millard, performing mock-marriage, and Albert King, alias Bush, larceny from the person, cases continued; Horace Hillman, colored, and John Williams, colored, fighting, each fined $5; Peter McKen, drunk, forfeiture of $5; H. A. Cramer and F.
G. Hayes, drunk, forfeiture of $5 each; Sam White, drunk, forfeiture of $5; John Dunham, colored, trespass, discharged; William Mathes and William Barson, housebreaking, cases continued.

Another Sudden Death.
Yesterday afternoon John Robert O'Mahoney, aged twenty-seven years, was found dead in John Specht's room, 332 Second street. The young man had been afflicted with spasms since he was five years of age, and in consequence of this misfortune his life was one of great sorrow and trouble to him. At times the unfortunate man would take to strong drink with the hope of allaying the acute pains to which he was subject. Yesterday afternoon he left his room and going into that of Mr. Specht, was found dead in bed by his father who chanced to enter the apartment about an hour after his son. Justice Spellman held an inquest on the body and the jury returned a verdict of "death from apoplemic fits." Young O'Mahoney was the son of a well-known shoemaker who works at Heninger's, on Monroe street, between Main and Second. Owing to his affliction the young man was despondent, and death, for which he seemed anxious, and frequently said he desired, was a relief to a dark and sad life of physical torture.

A Sudden Death.
Yesterday morning Mrs. Florence Brinson, aged forty-four years, was found dead in bed at her room in the Intelligence office on Main street, opposite the Court-house. Justice Spellman being notified, held an inquest on the body, and the jury returned a verdict of death from heart disease. Mrs. Brinson came here last November from St. Louis, Mo., bringing from Mrs. Mayo, of that city, a letter of recommendation to Mrs. J. C.
Johnson, president of the Ladies' Christian Association, and was soon given employment by Mrs. Judge Latham, of Rayburn avenue. Some time ago Mrs.
Brinson went to the City Hospital because of illness, and recently recovered.
She is said to have been an excellent lady, and has a daughter at school in Mobile, Ala. She had papers showing that her husband, H. H. Brinson, was a Mason and in good standing with his order at the time of her death.

Criminal Court.
